Anne Kaufman Weds At Playwright Father's Home

HOLICONG, May 9.—(INS)—Bruce Davis Colon, 22, New York book firm editor, was honeymooning today with his new bride, Anne Kaufman, 21, adopted daughter of playwright George S. Kaufman.

Literary and Broadway celebrities were on hand for the couple's marriage ceremony at Kaufman's summer home in Holicong. The outdoor rites were performed by Dr. Malcolm Stern, Philadelphia rabbi.

Colon is the son of Mrs. Bernard Colon, of 419 Park Ave., New York. It was the bride's second marriage.

Due to the coolness of the weather some of the 50 guests donned fur coats to witness the ceremony. The bride, however, wore a white net gown, with brocade bodice, and carried a lace fan. She marched down an aisle of 1600 potted geraniums arranged between two large white metal swans. She was unattended. Serving Mr. Colon as best man was Mr. Marvin A. Collier, of Brookline, Mass.

The guests included among others: Mrs. Eleanor Holm Rose, wife of Billy Rose, producer; Max Gordon and Jerome Chodorov, producers, and their wives; Quentin Reynolds, correspondent, and Mrs. Reynolds; Bennett Cerf, publisher, and Mrs. Cerf; Bernard Hart, brother of Moss Hart, Kaufman's collaborator on several stage hits and Jack Goodman, editorial chief of Simon and Shuster.

MAY GET READY-MADE
COMMUNITY BUILDING

Fleetwing Estates Civic Ass'n Holds Session; To Place A New Flag

ALSO HIGHWAY SIGN

The meeting of Fleetwing Estates Civic Association, held Thursday evening at the home of the new president, Hallet P. Minnich, opened with the news that the association treasury is a little more than $100 richer than it was before the card party April 24th.

Mr. McKendrick offered the information that there is a possibility of obtaining a ready-made building for use as a community house. This brought up the fact that the playground site has not yet been decided upon. Robert Drake volunteered to contact the owner of the land the group is interested in, to obtain specific information on what would be available. The association will call a special meeting when this information has been obtained, so that action can be taken as soon as possible.

Thomas McKendrick volunteered to obtain a flag for the pole at the entrance of the Estates, which has been bare for over a year.

Emil Stefek gave the information that game protectors, next week, plan to start shooting dogs found running loose in the woods and swamps behind the Estates. All pet owners in the Estates are to be advised of this, and of the fact that the state dog law requires all dogs to be leashed or in an enclosure from sunset to sunrise.

Regarding a sign for the entrance to the Estates, warning motorists of children playing, the group was informed that Mr. Minnich will ask the Keystone Automobile Club for assistance in obtaining such a sign.

William Eckstein and William Algeo pointed out the unhealthy situation that has been brought about by water forming a mosquito-breeding pool behind the homes on the southern part of Fleetwing Drive. It was agreed that this would fall under jurisdiction of the public service committee chairman. Inasmuch as Mr. Minnich had vacated that chairmanship when he was elected president of the association, Robert Drake was elected public service chairman.

Congressmen Attend
The Gerlach Funeral

ALLENTOWN, May 9.—Democratic and Republican Congressmen attended funeral services yesterday for Representative Charles L. Gerlach, who died last Monday. He was 51.

Rev. Edwin A. Sawyer, pastor of Calvary Moravian Church, officiated. Burial was in Allentown's Greenwood Cemetery.

For contempt of Court, Ferdinand Fortier, Philadelphia, was sentenced to serve 60 days in the county prison by Judge Boyer. The defendant, who played hide-and-seek with Bucks county authorities when they came to serve a warrant on him, wisecracked that he would have to "serve 90 days in Bucks county because he didn't know anyone who had any political pull."

Originally a support order for his estranged wife and daughter was made for $15 a week September 8, 1943 which was reduced to $7, for the daughter's support only, July 2, 1946.

The defendant failed to notify Probation Officer Horace E. Gwiner concerning his reasons for defaulting in the payment of $245.

Fortier, who informed the Court he was out of work and couldn't pay the support order, said he was playing shuffleboard in a tap room to ease his mind when picked up. His 60-day sentence begins from the date of April 7, when he was picked up and put in jail.

"WATCHFUL-EYE" NEEDED

The most important changes which the House of Representatives made in the Administration's Bill setting up a big relief program for foreign nations at Uncle Sam's expense was to insert a series of restrictions upon the use of these funds, known as the "watchful-eye" provisions.

How badly these are needed is shown by the current report of the U. S. Department of Commerce entitled "Foreign Trade Statistics Notes."

The April issue, containing figures for last February, show that about one-third of the UNRRA program at that time was being used to build up the strength and solidify the resistance of the Russian sphere of influence—now being described by our President and Secretary of State as a menace to our own national security and to world peace.

Europe is starving. Her recovery has been greatly impeded by Russian refusal to go along with any workable plan of re-establishing a sound economy in Europe, and by the further fact that the Russians have walked off with virtually all heavy machinery, food, and other resources of all territories they have occupied.

The procedure has been this: the Russians occupied certain "zones" at the end of the war, in line with secret deals presumably made earlier between Premier Stalin and the late President Roosevelt. The Russian occupation forces descended on these areas like swarms of locusts. Everything of value, for food or production, which wasn't too big to be moved, was hauled off to Russia.

The local populations were rendered destitute. Their problems were intensified by the influx of hordes of unfavored races ousted from other Russian-held territories. American relief was called upon to stop starvation and epidemics.

Some of these relief shipments, it has been charged, have been diverted directly into Russia—either on the scene or by the prior connivance of pro-Communists connected with the American end of the program. Other portions were recaptured by the Russians after it had been distributed. And all of it, of course, was largely a replacement of commodities which the Russians should never have been permitted to walk away with. We were in the position of compounding Russia's felonies by making good the shortage caused by her greed.

INCREASES ALLOWANCE

Alfred F. Krusen, Newtown
R. D., to Pay Additional Amount for Baby Girl

ONE CONTEMPT CASE

DOYLESTOWN, May 9.—Following a petition to amend a Court support order of $20 for his wife and three children, Alfred F. Krusen, Newtown, RD 1, was directed by the Court here this week to pay an order of $25 a week.

Counsel for the defendant informed Judge Boyer, who made the original support order Dec. 10, 1946, that Mr. Krusen has been paying his wife, Katharine A. Krusen, of Bristol, $5 additional since the birth of a daughter, Catherine Agnes.

Judge Boyer warned Mrs. Krusen that she must permit her husband to visit and see their children and also that he has the right to take them to his home on Sunday.

Mrs. Krusen, who shouted, "That is one thing I will never let him do, take them to the home of my mother-in-law," wept as she left the court room.

"Your wife and children, particularly the latter if you have any interest in them, should live with you on your farm," Judge Boyer said to Krusen.

For contempt of Court, Ferdinand Fortier, Philadelphia, was sentenced to serve 60 days in the county prison by Judge Boyer. The defendant, who played hide-and-seek with Bucks county authorities when they came to serve a warrant on him, wisecracked that he would have to "serve 90 days in Bucks county because he didn't know anyone who had any political pull."

MORTGAGE BURNING IS PLANNED FOR CHURCH

Cornwells Methodist Church
To Have Special Services
On This Occasion

"MOTHER" SERVICES

A mortgage burning celebration will feature the evening service in Cornwells Methodist Church on Sunday evening at 7:45. The Rev. W. Vernon Middleton, of Drexel Hill, will be the guest speaker.

An historical account of the Cornwells church is herewith set forth by the pastor, H. Henry Heavenr:

"At Cornwells, in the year of 1874, Eliza Swinney, the general store keeper, erected a stone dwelling and hall combined at his own expense. The hall was fitted up for church worship to be used by all denominations free of expense. Mr. Swinney generally conducted the evening service which was well attended. Frequently the Rev. Burdett, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. E. Humes, of the Episcopal Church at Edgington preached alternately on Sunday afternoons. In 1886 the afternoon preaching gave way to Sabbath School instruction for the children of Cornwells and byberry.

"Mr. Swinney moved from Cornwells and the hall passed out of his control. The meetings were abandoned and the hall was used for storage purposes. About March the first, 1888, Mrs. George Wilds suggested establishing a Methodist Church in Cornwells. There were only two or three Methodist families in the community; it seemed a hard task.

"Mrs. Eleanor Thornp, mother of Mrs. Wilds, volunteered to loan $300 for the purchase of a lot for erection of a church. The arrangements were all made and a church was built of frame construction, 28'x28', height of ceiling 20 feet. The cost at the time, not including pulpit, was $1900.

"At the dedication services the people responded freely with their gifts of money, so at the close of the day there were sufficient funds raised to liquidate the entire debt.

"On May the 30th, 1916, a frame parsonage was erected. This project was sponsored by popular subscription.

"In 1928 it was evident that more room was needed for the growing Sunday School and Church. So on June 10th, 1928, there was constructed at the rear of the church a new building, 36'x80', dashed stone, open truss interior, with class rooms and modern facilities. The building was completed the same

Beware!
They are headed this way!
A cockroach and a sparrow!
They are travelling together, according to T. L. O., who wrote a letter to the Philadelphia Bulletin, which was published yesterday.

T. L. O., Langhorne, writes: I notice that some New Jersey people are looking for a lost robin. I, too, am in trouble. I have lost a sparrow and a favorite cockroach.

The sparrow is brown, pug-nacious, and answers to the name of Butch. It has hung around our house for years, eating our handouts, and two weeks ago it disappeared. If any of your readers see a sparrow named Butch I hope they will communicate with me.

The missing cockroach is black, one and a quarter inches long and very fond of the sparrow. In fact, they were playmates. Any reader who sees a sparrow and a cockroach travelling together may be sure they are mine, as they were last seen headed toward Bristol together.

Discover Plans for Romanian Communist Army

Paris—Documentary evidence disclosing plans for formation of a Communist "Security Army" in Romania involving recruitment of former members of the Nazi-tainted Iron Guard came to light today. The disclosure followed persistent reports of mass arrests in Romania as part of an apparent purge of right-wing elements still active in the Communist-dominated country.

Sexton's Coat Sold As
He Aids Women at Sale

MORRISVILLE, May 9.—The proceeds of a rummage sale conducted by the Clara Burgess Guild a few days ago may be used to make up the losses sustained at the rummage sale.

With no attempt at double talk, this is merely a way of saying the church sexton lost his overcoat to the over-zealous buyers while trying to add the Guild, a young women's missionary society.

Richard Watkins didn't lose his shirt—just a good overcoat, and on a day like today he needs one. It appears that Watkins, the sexton, arrived at the church during the morning hours, and deciding to help the women, took off his overcoat and hung it above a desk in the corner of the room where the rummage sale was held.

At noon he prepared to don his coat, but there was no coat to don. Yes—one of the women distinctly remembered selling it! But for how much? Well, she wasn't sure. But it was a small sum.

The next piece of business on the Guild calendar is providing Watkins with a coat, as the purchaser of his coat is unidentified.

TO EQUALIZE TAXES

A method of remedying an inexcusable inequity is proposed in a bill introduced in Congress. The bill, by Representative Doughton, North Carolina Democrat, would apply the community property provision, now existing in nine states, to the entire nation.

In California, Texas, Washington, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada and the territory of Hawaii, husbands and wives may file separate returns even though only one of them earns any income. As a result, they get lower income tax rates.

A family, for example, with $4,000 net income in 1945 paid $40 less in community property states than in any one of the other 38 states. A family with $10,000 net income paid $440, or 17 per cent, less in community property states. A family with net income of $100,000 paid $13,680, or 20 per cent, less.

The effect is that residents of 38 states pay higher taxes than residents of nine states and a territory. While Congress is reducing income taxes, it should also equalize them.

The effect of the Doughton bill would be to make all states community property states for income tax purposes. It would achieve a general reduction in rates, benefiting the lower income brackets least. But Representative Kuntz's tax bill, which benefits the lowest brackets most, has been criticized by the leftists for not socking the rich enough. Hence the Doughton bill may encounter severe criticism from friends of the "pee-pul."

Of course, the equality the Doughton bill aims at could be met by excluding all states from community property provisions. But it is generally admitted that this would require a constitutional amendment, and that a constitutional amendment of this sort would never be approved by the requisite 36 states.

OFF THE AIR

The ambitious scheme to sell Russia on the United States through a program of radio broadcasts will come to an end with the beginning of the next fiscal year, July 1. A congressional appropriations committee has turned down a budget estimate of $31,000,000 to finance the program. Broadcasts will continue to South America. All future efforts along this line will be confined to the Western Hemisphere.

The broadcasts to Russia were a project of the executive branch of the government. They had never been approved by Congress. The money had been diverted from emergency funds over strong Republican opposition.

The precise manner in which Russia was to be won over to the American way of thinking through radio programs, when few Russians not government functionaries own radios, will continue to be a mystery to many persons. Germany and Japan tried similar tactics during the war to be met with derision. The broadcasts to Russia endeavor will go down as another noble experiment which fell by the wayside.

This is the picture which the House of Representatives has seen of the UNRRA, and one easily possible for its successors. These relief agencies have been used as a means of permitting Russia to walk off with more than the lion's share of the spoils of war—a war supposedly fought, not for spoils, but for the Four Freedoms.

The real complaint from the New Dealers at Washington about the House Bill is not that the size of the relief program has been cut from $350,000,000 to $200,000,000—but that the watchful-eye clauses are going to compel some sense and precaution in the administration of European relief.

Russia was skimming the cream of the UNRRA program as late as last February—and still getting the gravy out of the remnants of the Lease-Lend program as well.

Shipments valued at $3,483,000 went out during February under Lease-Lend—and $3,192,000 of them went to Russia. As for UNRRA shipments of domestic American merchandise, these totalled $66,538,000 in February—and of that, $6,159,000 went directly to Russia. But the Russian sphere got far more in the way of goods shipped to her satellites than to her own soil. Poland received $5,745,000; Austria, $3,863,000; Germany, $2,134,000; Czechoslovakia, $1,832,000.

The reports make some perforce efforts to prove that little of the goods shipped to Germany and Austria have found their way into the Russian zones of those occupied nations; but this is rather beside the point, even if true. The fact is that the Russian areas of both these countries, which have largely been stripped bare, are the very areas which ought to be producing a surplus for the relief of the populations in the American and British occupied territory.

The nature of the UNRRA shipments are even more startling than their disproportionate balance in favor of the Communistic sphere of influence.

Take the case of Italy, which is listed as receiving $20,364,000 of the UNRRA relief. This consists of corn, wheat, and soybean flour, and coal. Now, that's all very well; but everyone knows that, quite as much as immediate food, Italy also needs machinery, rolling stock, and other industrial supplies to rebuild her economy.

UNRRA is shipping articles of this sort. Where are they going? The report tells the answer. Listed as having been sent to Russia are "paper mill and other machinery;" to Poland, "tractors, metal-working machinery;" Czechoslovakia, "rubber belting, tractors, agricultural implements;" Yugoslavia, "tractors, metalworking machinery."

This is an astonishing picture. Italy is, next to Germany and France, the big problem-child of Europe's distress; Italy's economy absolutely must be set on its feet; if there is danger of Communistic expansion, Italy is a place where the stage is set for a Russian take-over unless Italy gets away from a hand-to-mouth reliance of handouts of primary essentials.

Yet the heavy machinery and the other essentials for economic strength go, not to Italy, but to Russia and Russia's stooges!

The same situation exists with regard to Greece. UNRRA could find its way clear to send locomotives to China, long after Secretary Marshall had thrown up his hands and walked out of that civil war-ridden hotspot of Communistic trouble.

But for Greece? UNRRA shipments to this nation, now being used by President Truman as a stepping stone for coaxing Uncle Sam into Europe's troubles up to his neck, are listed as being "mules, cattle, corn, wheat and wheat flour."

And Germany, where Marshall has joined with former President Hoover in demanding that the heavy-industry economy which was the cornerstone of European stability be re-established—was Germany getting any of the industrial machinery, tractors, metalworking machinery, rubber belting and agricultural implements being laid down in the hands of the Russians and their puppets?

Not in numbers worth listing in the report. Shipments to Germany, totalling 55,141,000 pounds, are listed tersely as "Principal commodities: wheat."

Far from being alarmed at the House Republicans' insistence on the "watchful-eye" clauses in the new foreign relief bill, Secretary Marshall and President Truman ought to be gratified. These provisions stand an excellent chance of stopping what appears to have been going on—having the official White House and State Department policy in Europe undercut and destroyed by pro-Communists calling the shots in the UNRRA relief program.

BADENHAUSEN BATTLES HIBERNIANS TO TIE

In a see-saw affair on the Bristol Township field last evening, the Badenhausen and Hibernian teams battled to a 6-6 deadlock in a Bristol Suburban League tilt.

The lead changed four times in the contest. The boiler-makers took a 1-0 lead in the second and then lost it, 2-1. Four runs in the third gave the Badies a 5-2 lead, but in the fifth the Hibos scored three times to take the lead. Badenhausen tied it up in the sixth after shutting out their opponent in the first half of the inning.

Both starting hurlers, "Charlie"
Martindell and "Tommy" Kervick went the distance. Kervick went a little sour in the third when doubles from the bats of Hibbs, Hutton and Leighton aided in the scoring of four runs. The Hibbs scored a trio of runs in the fifth on a double, two walks and a pair of singles.

In the sixth, Martindell singled but died trying to make third on a hit by Ken Clifton. George Hutton followed with a two-bagger to score Clifton with the tying run. The game was then called because of darkness.

ST. ANN'S DOWNS DEMOCRAT NINE FOR FOURTH WIN

Barbetta's Home Run in 3rd
One of Longest Hits At Maple Beach

GAME ENDS AT 6 TO 2

Chichiletti Allowed Only
Two Hits and Both
Were Singles

St. Ann's A. A. met its stiffest opposition of the season last evening on the Maple Beach diamond as it downed the Democrat Club, 6-2, for its fourth straight win of the Bristol Suburban League.

"Bert" Barbetta's home run in the third inning, one of the longest hits on the Maple Beach field, paved the way for the "Saints" triumph as the Democrat Club had tied the score at 2-2 in their half of the inning.

The Democrats made but two hits off the flinging of Nate Chichiletti, both singles, but the one hit by
"Tommy" Purcell scored two runs and for the time had deadlocked
the count.

The "Saints" had 10 safe hits and besides the home run by Barbetta, Massi had a two-bagger and Chichiletti had a triple. The latter hit accounted for two runs in the second.
Errors helped St. Ann's score their markers in the fourth and fifth innings.

Judge Boyer continued a hearing in the case of Anna DeReiter, 78, of Perkaste, versus eight children, on a charge of non-support of an indigent parent.

The six children, who appeared in court on Tuesday, were Martha Beer, Julia Cramer, who is nursing her mother, and Josephine Snyder, all of Perkaste; William Cramer, Perkaste, RD 2; John DeReiter, Quakertown, and Charles DeReiter, Trumbauersville.

Two other children, Henry J. Cramer and Miss Anna Cramer, whose testimony was taken at a previous hearing, will appear with the other six brothers and sisters at the next hearing May 19th.

The case involves difficulties because the mother lost her citizenship by marrying a Belgian at one time.

The six brothers and sisters have been supporting their mother for a number of years but they want the other two to aid them.

Harry Stoddard, of Morrisville, charged with desertion and non-support, was directed to pay $5 a week to his wife, Edith, for the support of a daughter, Carol Lee, in addition to any previous amount.

A 34-year-old Quakertown wife, Esther Mitman, of near Trumbauersville, whose husband, Ernest Mitman, 25, Quakertown, was directed to pay a support order of $10 a week, testified before Judge Calvin S. Boyer that her husband told her lawyers were "honeymakers and liars" and that she shouldn't pay attention to them.

Mrs. Mitman, who married her ex-GI husband June 8, 1946, and separated March 8, told Judge Boyer that her husband prevented her from talking to her mother in

The wife, who is employed in a Quakertown pants factory, also told how her husband "scared the life out of her with a gun which was lying on a chair when she entered their apartment one day."

The husband, who denied that he was ever cruel to her, but admitted that he had to hold her from jumping from a second floor window, testified that he loved his wife and when he slapped her it was part of "love-making" and not because he was cruel.

As for the camp meeting incident, the husband said he knew what the ministers on the platform were say-

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Arthur D. Sargis
Pastor

Dear Father, we thank Thee for Christian repentance. There is so much we should "change our minds about." We need to change our minds about things—"what doth it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul." We need to change our minds about sickness, suffering and pain—"distress hath enlarged my soul." We need to change our minds about ourselves—"not my will but thy will be done." Help us, dear Lord, to truly repent, to change our ways, and to follow Thee always. Amen.

"The Mysterious Mr. M."

THE HAND SCALE SAYS EIGHT POUNDS OF SPECKLED TROUT!

Here in the Province of Quebec's Gaspé area eight-pounders of the battling speckled trout variety come often enough to make this district one of the most popular fishing grounds in America. Completely away from the world of work are the Gaspe fresh water fishing paradises, each of which is thought by the man who fishes it, to be the best. Relaxation and restoration of jangled nerves is the by-product actually sought. Through the long winter months thousands of American sportsmen literally count the weeks until the trout season opens each spring. (Advertisement)

Sportsmen's Briefs

By JOE ELBERSON

Bristol meets . . . next Tuesday, May 13th, the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will hold its May meeting in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Radcliffe and Walnut streets. The meeting, which will get underway at eight p. m., is open to all interested sportsmen.

Nice catches . . . two Bristol-ians, Charles Bunting and John Warner, both recently returned from Florida, got in a little real fishing while there. Sailing out of Delray Beach, Warner hooked and landed a 48-pound sailfish, measuring 6', 6". Bunting landed a barracuda which measured 3', 6". Both men were high in their praise of this type of fishing.

Shoot this Sunday . . . a 50-target blue-rock shoot is scheduled for this Sunday over the traps of the Edge-Rod & Gun Club. The shoot, which will begin at one in the afternoon, will be run Lewis Class. All shooters are welcome.

Blame it on the weather . . . that is the reason for the poor trout fishing since the opening day, and this information comes from no less an authority than Harry Z. Cole, State Fish Warden. He believes that when the weather improves the trout fishing will also improve.

Final report . . . more than one and a half million rabbits were shot in Pennsylvania last year, according to the final report of the Game Commission which was recently made public.

The 1946 take of 1,524,798 rabbits was larger than the 1945 season when 1,398,683 cottontails were taken by gunners.

But the same report shows a decrease from the 1945 season in the pheasant kill. In 1945 gunners shot 290,917 ringnecks, while last year they killed 213,384.

One of the greatest decreases, the report shows, was that of wild waterfowl. In 1945 the kill was 72,783. Last year it was only 28,712. The wild turkey kill was up last year with a total of 2,518, as against 1,716 for 1945.

In the big game column the deer kill was considerably up over the 1945 total. Last year a total of 25,319 deer were taken, and in 1945 the total was 25,660.

Squirrels showed an increase with 770,637 shot last year as compared to 720,866 in 1945. The woodchuck take also showed an increase with 228,329 taken last year and 156,737 taken the previous year.

The woodcock kill was down with 17,042 killed last year and 24,937 the year before.

The total for all classifications, however, was greater for 1946 than 1945. Last year this figure was 2,953,509. In 1945 it was 2,870,664. Total weight last year was equal to 5,316 tons and in 1945 this figure was 4,453 tons.

The figures on small game kill were based on Field Officers estimates, while the big game figures were based on the individual reports filed by hunters.

Almost three million pieces of game for one season is really big business.

CROYDON V. F. W. NINE SCHEDULE

The Croydon V. F. W. team will open its season this week-end with games being scheduled tomorrow and Sunday afternoon. Both games are scheduled for the Third Ward field, Bristol Pike and Otter streets, at 2:30 o'clock. Tomorrow, the "Vets" will meet the Goodwill Hose team, of the Bristol Suburban League, while Sunday, the Croydon boys meet the Nicetown Blue Devils, of the Philadelphia League.

SCHEDULE SUNDAY GAME

The Clinton J. Lewis Lodge, I. B. P. O. E. of W., No. 201, will open its baseball season Sunday at Leedom's Field, meeting the strong Princeton Social Club, winners of the North Jersey Twilight League of 1946. Manager Raymond Dorsey will field a strong team composed of some former players of the Cubans, Newark Eagles, Johnson Stars. Probable battery, Liggie Bragg, pitcher; Matt Bragg, catcher.
